A modern apartment in the heart of the part of Prague Smíchov combines a prestigious address with above-standard quality and an industrial way of implementation. It is intended for those who prefer the quality of housing corresponding to current trends known from the world's most important cities.

The apartment is located on the first floor of a unique fully reconstructed complex standing on the site of an important printing factory of the First Republic. The interior consists of a spacious living room with preparation for a kitchenette, a dining area and access to a south-facing terrace, a bedroom, a bathroom with a bathtub and a toilet, a wardrobe and an anteroom.

Standards include oak floors, large-format wooden windows, rebate-free doors, modern bathrooms with large-format tiles, elegant LED lighting elements, use of smart technologies, LCD home control, air conditioning, air recuperation, security camera system and preparation for window blinds. The apartment complex has a unique roof garden, wellness, laundry, enclosed courtyard and non-stop reception with security. Basement space and garage parking are available at an additional cost.

Smíchov is a modern district full of parks, shops and restaurants. Living in this location means living in the very center of the city, yet in a place that has its own distinctive character. Full civic amenities include schools, kindergartens, medical facilities, shopping centers, countless restaurants, clubs, cinemas, theaters, as well as green parks and sports fields. Easily accessible public transport in the form of tram and bus lines and metro station Anděl allows a quick and convenient connection to the center and other parts of the city.

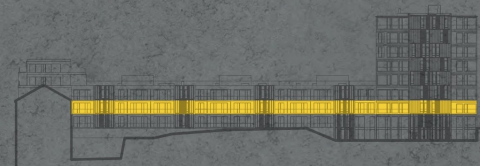

The apartment is finished and ready to move.
